Tuesday, May 14: Palermo

Welcome! There will be only one transfer provided by shuttle from the Palermo Airport to the hotel in Palermo. You must arrive at the Palermo Airport by 12:30 p.m. local time for this service. If you arrive outside of that window or to a different location, you'll need to arrange your own transportation to the hotel (approximately a 30-40 minute drive time). After you settle in to the hotel in Palermo, where you'll stay for three nights, there will be time to explore prior to a welcome dinner at a phenomenal restaurant at 8 p.m.

Wednesday, May 15: Palermo

Sicily's history offers a window into its culture and cuisine. After breakfast at the hotel, it's time to embark on a guided tour of Palermo, exploring the Norman & Arabic influences that are woven into the city's culture and history. The tour will take you to features throughout the city, including a local market with a stop for a unique street food-style lunch. Afterward, you are free to explore the city and dine on your own.

Thursday, May 16: Palermo

Breakfast at the hotel will be provided before embarking on an exclusive visit to an artisanal ceramic workshop in Palermo, a destination for art lovers that is known for producing rare pieces. Afterward, there will be additional free time to soak in Palermo and lunch on your own. For dinner, savor a modern take on Sicilian dining at a trending restaurant rich with ambiance.

Friday, May 17: Palermo/Calascibetta/Siracusa

Artisan experiences await! After breakfast at the hotel, luggage will be collected and you'll travel to a family-owned sheep's milk cheese producer just outside of Calascibetta to enjoy a visit and tasting lunch. The journey then continues to the historic coastal city of Siracusa, rich with Greek influences, where you'll check in to a 5-star boutique hotel for a two-night stay. After a guided tour of Siracusa, you'll have time on your own to explore the city and enjoy dinner.

Sunday, May 19: Siracusa/Caltagirone/Niscemi

Unwind in hillside splendor at a unique resort winery. After breakfast at the hotel, luggage will be collected and you'll travel to Caltagirone, a city known for its stunning pottery, with time to explore before lunch. The journey will then continue to Niscemi for an overnight at a one-of-a-kind boutique hotel/resort winery. Located in a restored 18th century manor house, the baglio, or fortified estate, is situated atop a hill with stunning views and grape vines that line the hillside. Here, you'll enjoy a visit to the winery and a tasting dinner before an overnight stay at the estate.

Monday, May 20: Niscemi/Castelvetrano/Trapani

Travel seemingly back in time to Castelvetrano, a city that dates back to the 12th and 13th centuries. It is here that a tasting lunch and visit at a special bakery awaits, where you'll learn about the typical pane nero of Castelvetrano. Afterward, you'll travel to the seaside city of Trapani and check in to a modern hotel for a four-night stay, prior to enjoying a group dinner.

Tuesday, May 21: Trapani/Erice/Trapani

A hands-on cooking adventure awaits, but first you'll travel to the medieval village of Erice, a city with ancient origins that offers breathtaking views and a storied architectural footprint. You'll enjoy free time in this hilltop city with plenty to explore, but you'd be amiss if you didn't stop into a bakery or two along the way. Later in the day, get ready to roll up your sleeves and work with a professional chef for a hands-on cooking class dinner, centered around preparing a traditional Sicilian meal.

Wednesday, May 22: Trapani/Marsala/Trapani

Marsala is a city renowned for its wine that sits on the westernmost tip of Sicily. We'll venture here to marvel at the sight of the bright white salt flats, which will be explained with a visit to the museum. From there, you'll head to a winery for a visit and tasting lunch. Guests will then be transported back to the hotel to enjoy the evening in Trapani on their own.
